

Adamah

Gen 2:7 — Man's body was formed from the dust or small particles of the earth. The Hebrew words for man and earth are similar. 1 Cor 15:47 — But his life came from the breath of YHWH, a living being, a living personality. The word for man is adham. The word for earth/ground is adhamah — as Jer 18:6, the potter and clay. Man is particles of earth, animated by YHWH Elohim's (Gen 2:4) breath or spirit which makes him a living being (Ps 104:29-30; Job 34:14-15).

All living things depend upon YHWH at every moment for their existence (Rom 1:18-32, Amplified or Living; Jn 1:3).

But those who are subject to the unclean spirits are tasting the sting of death to the degree they are influenced by them, so they cannot understand the truth or the power of YHWH.

Gen 1:26 — Man is the climax of YHWH's creative work, made in His image. The creature man was made especially in order for the Creator to manifest His rule on earth. But man fell into dullness and apathy to his original intention, called DEATH, separated from His purpose and intent. They must be set free by His word (Heb 4:12-13). Yahshua, the Messiah, was delivered to death for the sake of those who had sinned, that they might turn to the truth and no longer go on sinning or allowing themselves to be influenced by these unclean spirits, in order to enter the kingdom of our Father and His son.

In order to offer a meal (grain) offering it cannot be mixed with self-seeking (Mal 1:11), rivalry, selfish intent, or ambition, malice, evil thoughts (Mt 18:3; Eph 5:1-5). The meal offering must be most holy, coming out of the fires of the BURNT OFFERING. There cannot be any malice, ill-motive in His service.

The meal offering must be offered continually as a perpetual offering by the royal priesthood until the Kingdom of Heaven. Mal 1:11 — a grain offering that is pure (Mal 1:7-12).

When our worship here on earth equals the angels in heaven, when we rejoice equal to the angels in heaven over one sinner who repents, when we long for Him to come, and eagerly expect Him — then He will come to those who are doing THIS!
