Wedding Breakfast Andrew & Lebanah's Wedding

Prophecy is knowing and is based on the word — prophesy so the guests at the wedding can understand things. Prophecy will come for understanding what His will and His word is. Prophecy must be stimulated today. Andrew must be the greatest today. What comes forth from the groom that day is what is in him — the standard for the rest of his life. Andrew is to take care of his body today.

Andrew: I'm thankful for the brothers.

Andrew obviously has a certain effect on people that brings friendship and hope to them. What's on our Master's heart while He waits for His bride is what His bride is like. Andrew speaks of Lebanah as one who was "right there" after her baptism — relying on others; not strong. Lebanah was described as a sweet aroma, characterized by "pure love."

We need to lay our hands on Andrew that the power of Ruach ha Kodesh would come upon him.
