

Watchmen

Of course, it's not His Body, but the same respect, the same reverence that's shown towards this meal is what we show our Master, Himself.

He could kill unrighteousness without any condemnation because we all deserved it, but when He had our Master, our Master submitted to Him.

I want to say something tonight:

One of the most wonderful things that a person can be called is a watchman. I want to be a watchman.

There are many places in the Scriptures where it talks about watchmen on the wall. And you can see one in Isa 56:10:

Israel's watchmen are blind, they all left knowledge, they are all mute dogs, they cannot bark. They lie around and dream; they love to sleep. They are dogs with mighty appetites, they never have enough, they are shepherds who lack understanding, they all turn to their own way, each seeks his own gain. "Come," each one says, "Let me get wise, let us drink our fill of beer and tomorrow will be like today and even far better." Now it speaks about watchmen.
