

About Our Youth

Yoneq and I have talking a lot about how to think about unfaithful, disloyal children. They are human beings created in the image of God, accountable for their own choices — so they must use their will to do God's will. If they do not, they must be judged like all men. There are some children who do love their parents and Yahshua. These will be the ones our Abba can build with. The others will go off, just like Judas (our Master's friend), to a terrible fate because they have received so much light.

And though many of the parents made mistakes, they are certainly not SO BAD that the child is justified to turn away from God. ...And maybe sometimes we make the problem bigger than it is by only talking about the "bad youth," when actually most youth there are obedient and "trying" to make it. I hope you will encourage them. They know when people like them.

I hope we can some more time there, but it seems like the "pressing need" is elsewhere.

Yoneq is very interested in Chile and South America and Bekor from Peru. Maybe you should make your plane reservation soon to go there, and then communicate to our brothers in Shimone (who are very interested in Bekor). We also hear that Oscar is right at the door. We are very happy.

I need to go. I only want to communicate my sincere heart of love and appreciation to you. I do not forget....it is a long time now that we have been friends.

In Yahshua's ahavah which He put in our hearts,

ha-emeq
