

Self

The first community had a head-on collision with SELF, and it was totaled and killed. At first the self had a head-on collision with community, and was totaled and killed (Acts 2:38-47). But 50 years later, or more, the book of James and Revelations 2 and 3 were written.

And faith was now without works.

Profession was now without confession.

A good reputation was now without the character to back it up.

Messiah was now without a witness, or testing, or attestation of the truth of His Spirit dwelling within a Body.
