

Not Greeting as the Gentiles Do

When we greet one another, let's not ask, "How are you?" This is how the Gentiles greet one another and then give a dishonest reply, "OK," or "All right," or "Just fine," or "Pretty good."

Even the Indians learned not to ask this kind of question. They checked themselves by just saying, "How." So that is as far as we ought to take it.