

Heresy 2

The term heretic is applied to those within the church who have gone astray and no longer abide in the anointing of the Holy Spirit (1 Jn 2:27; 1 Cor 11:18-19). They have gone too far and do not adhere to the teachings of Messiah through the Apostles (2 Jn 1:7-11). When they depart from the anointing they depart from the church (1 Jn 2:19-20; 4:6).

2 Tim 3:1-5, along with 4:3-4, defines Christianity. The gospel that does not create community is a false gospel. 1 Tim 4:1-2 and 2 Cor 11:4,13-15 also describe Christianity.

“Russellism” (the Jehovah Witnesses) has never been a part of Christianity, therefore it could never be considered a heresy. Agnosticism is also defined as a heresy today. How stupid to believe such a thing! Most people consider heresy as contrary opinions held by members within the “mainstream” Christian Orthodox Church. They also lump together all religions outside mainstream Christianity as heresy, but heresy is actually an opposing opinion(s) held by the member(s) of the one Body of Messiah which differs from the Apostles teaching (Acts 2:42, 1 Jn 2:27).

What Is The Church?

The Church is the One Body of Messiah, not divided in any way by differing opinions. In every local Church 1 Tim 2:8 is to be carried out in truth by every member of the Body. A local church is all believers in a township or locality who all agree (1 Cor 1:10). They are without dissension between any person or any household within the clan (Jer 31:1). Dissension is having the mere hint of a differing opinion or judgment. We do not tolerate even the hint of disunity among us, let alone allowing those who have gone too far (by not abiding in the anointing) to bring in heresy.

How The Church Learned Messiah

There can be no such thing as heresy (a divisive factor) within the one Body of Messiah. The differing opinion creates the different denomination (faction). Denomination is heresy itself. Each denomination represents a differing opinion or mind (doctrine or belief). Eph 4:4-6 proves the Body of Messiah is not Christianity. It exposes Christianity as being a fallen House (Mt 12:25). What Paul describes as dissidence (error, schism, sects) in Gal 5:20-21 confirms that no one who is in any dissension group could possibly have any inheritance in the Kingdom of God, since he is a member of a divided House (Mt 12:25). Billy Graham’s gospel of ecumenical oneness is an attempt to mask the true nature of that divided House called Christianity. His gospel can be summed up in the following quote taken from his booklet Growing as a Christian which is given to all the new converts at his Crusades.

“I have learned that although Christians do not always agree, they can disagree agreeably, and that what is more needed in the church today is for us to show an unbelieving world that we love one another. To me the church has become a great, glorious and triumphant organism. It is the body of Christ, and the humblest member is an important part of that body.

“The family of God contains people of various ethnological, cultural, class and denominational differences. I have learned that there can even be minor disagreements of theology, methods and motives, but that within the true church there is a mysterious unity that overrides all divisive factors.”

Paul told the Ephesians they did not learn Christ in this way. They knew and understood what the Church was and how its life was maintained (Eph 4:11-16). They had heard and been taught the way of truth in Yahshua through the Apostles (verse 21). They had laid aside their former manner of life, having welcomed the new life (through the proper premise and foundation) they were brought into. It was now their responsibility to maintain their unity and grow in love and devotion for Messiah through their faithfulness (Eph 4:15-16; 6:24). We want to major on the so-called, “minor disagreements” which are mentioned above. What does he consider minor disagreements ... according to 1 Cor 1:10 and 1 Tim 2:8? And what is expected from the Love of God (Rom 5:5; Jn 13:34,*35; 1 Jn 3:14; 1 Cor 13:1-3)? What began as a minor disagreement in the beginning between the Roman and Greek Churches shortly afterwards ignited into an uncontrollable flame of division between the Apostate

Mother Church and all her daughters. It gave rise to the Catholic and Protestant Churches, along with the Anabaptist, Calvin and Luther, Anglican and Church of England, the Pentecostals and Southern Baptist, the Presbyterians and ...on and on and on and on.... All one needs to do is to look at history — its roots and origins (Rev 2:15; 18:2). What is mentioned above should be a catalyst to us everywhere in the Tribes when writing our papers. We could literally write volumes and volumes concerning this subject and still not be done. This must go into our papers when we are addressing Christianity.

Heresy and Christian Orthodoxy

Heresy today cannot be defined within the religious system. It is the outcome of it. There is no standard or criteria for judgment, since all denominations are heretical. So writers of books, like Heresies Exposed, make up a standard (a false assumption ground, a false postulation) whereby to make judgments. They make up a standard called Christian orthodoxy and all belief outside of the Creeds is heresy. All religions of today are heresy to the so-called Christian Church.

The word heresy appears in the Bible in 1 Cor 11:19; Gal 5:20; 2 Pet 2:1; Acts 24:14 and Tit 3:10,11. Heresy is #139 in the Strong's Concordance, along with #141 in Titus 3:10 which means a party, disunion, or sect. In Titus 3:10 it is described as schismatic. The Greek (#138) defines heresy as a choice (option or a preference) a person makes because of a different opinion he maintains about doctrine. Denomination is the inevitable result of choosing sides by the persuasion of a factious man (Tit 3:10-11). It is diversity of belief, creating a (denomination) or dissension (1 Tim 2:8).

So, 2 Pet 2:2 says that ultimately (as a result) the way of the truth is maligned (blasphemed) because of it. Christianity is the epitome of this: A division (heresy). Every single denomination was started by a factious man with a different opinion who led others away to himself (Acts 20:30).

The Church is Jn 17:23, because of Jn 13:34 and all men will know because of verse 35 and Mal 3:18. Unity doesn't make love, but love makes unity (Rom 5:5). Gal 5:20-22 is the manifestation of Christianity, yet there are no factions (splits, heresy) in the Church (Eph 4:4-6). But Christianity is a fallen House.

The ecumenical movement cannot manufacture love. But it will try to manufacture unity. Manufacture = concoct contrive, devise, as Rom 5:5.

Judaism and the Early Church (paralleled with Christianity and the 12 Tribes of Israel)

In Acts 24:14 they called the Church a Sect thinking that they were a part of Judaism, which was totally a misunderstanding (misconception). They were a misinformed people. This was something they were absolutely not (Mt 21:43). Acts 24:14 proves that The Way (the communities) were totally separate from Judaism, in the same way as we preach Yahshua to Christians (Acts 18:5).

So the word heresy today is based on a false premise (falsely based) than how it was originally in the first century. The Church today called Christianity is all schizoid (schismatic). It is a false assumption ground with a "modern-day" definition for the word heresy, which had to be altered in nature to fit in with that system. Christianity is no longer viewed as a heresy, but called by different names (denominations) in the so called one Church.

Christianity has redefined the word heresy and applied it to mainstream historical doctrine, rather than in divisions (factions, Titus 3:10). The way Christianity uses the term heresy is a mis-application of the word. It applies only to Jn 17:21; 1 Cor 1:10, 11:19; and 1 Ths 2:8.

So to Bob Pardon we speak Acts 18:5 and 24:14. We preach the true one to both the Jews and the Christians. Both "Houses" are fallen and their sins are piled up as high as heaven. We use the Bible in the same way as the early disciples used the Law and Prophets (Mt 5:17-19). The first Church used the same scriptures as the Jews did but in the light of the Holy Spirit. We use the same scriptures (Bible) as the Christians do, but in light of the Holy Spirit.

The first Church used the commandments Mt 28:19-20 and the Old Testament scriptures to teach the Jews the truth about the "new nation" (Mt 21:43), the Royal Priesthood of New Israel (Acts 20:6,7,22,23; 28:23). Both the Jews and Gentiles are incorporated into that new nation as spoken in Rev 1:6; & 5:9,10. After Messiah's death, the temple service of Judaism went on almost 40 years before it was destroyed. It has now been 1900 years for Christianity, but its judgment is pending (Rev 18:8).
