

Concerning the Election of President Clinton To the Apostolic Workers

Dear Brothers of Judah,

I quote Dan 4:17, “The decision is by the decree of the watchers and the sentence by the word of the holy ones; in order that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He wills and sets over it the lowest of men.”

Lowest — #8215, basest — means as low as you can go. This was something that God had to do. Base means despicable in His sight or estimation, not only unjust but filthy (Rev 22:11). The word in Hebrew means that He gives the rule into the hands of the most contemptible and corrupt and depraved — despicable, dishonorable, disreputable, ignoble, immoral, scandalous, shameful, sordid, vile, villainous, vulgar — “lowest” — and worthless as far as a human’s worth is valued.

“This is what God does to show that whoever He puts into power is a reflection of the people. The United States of America has elected a president who violates the same everlasting covenant as they do. They are one in the same kind. The presidential election is a decree of the watchers, #5894, of the watcher over the nations — angels — the guardian angel over the United States of America.

Dan 4:25 — The Most High rules in the Kingdom of men and gives it to whomever He chooses. He does this through the decree of the watcher, a holy one (Dan 4:13). Dan 7:18,22 — The breakdown in government until the Stone Kingdom rules the whole earth. The watchers are angels influential over nations (Dan 10:13)

Some watchers have influences over nations. They can persuade men to vote or not to vote and influence who they vote for.

The ruling angels or prince — the watcher (guardian) in a negative sense — the ruler over Persia who influences the kings and people — as God so sovereignly allows. It is an evil angel in Dan 10:13 who opposed Michael, one of the chief princes. We see Eph 6:13 here. The prince, the angel of Persia whose abode is in the invisible realm, attempted to keep the captive Jews from returning to their homeland. This is a clear example of how Mr. Clinton was re-elected president. It took armies to oppose any victory by Bob Dole, an American with fabric.

The prince of Persia in Dan 10 is the head of the spiritual forces assembled on behalf of Persia. Michael (Dan 12:1), the great prince who stands guard (watch) over the sons of Daniel’s people. This is of course the twelve-tribed nation of spiritual Israel in the last days. These enemy angels in Dan 10 oppose God’s purpose — this shows us that the angels as Eph 6:12 says and here in Daniel, have powerful control. Such principalities and rulers of darkness exercise power over nations and national elections and political issues (Dan 10:20).

Col 1:16 and Acts 8:26 — Yahshua’s power is above all other power and authority. But in the case of this presidential election (Dan 4:32) we must learn our Father’s will — we will eat grass until we know it.

Dan 4:17 — By setting President Clinton over the earth — the most influential man on earth today, and just as it says, the very lowest of men, the basest.

Basest, #8215, means a man of the most inferior quality and character of debased nature — even counted rifeit. I am not disrespectful to Mr. Clinton, but just giving us the understanding of these dark days coming up. 2 Tim 3:1; 2:26 — The woman, the world church, will make more and more inroads into the political realm (Rev 17:1-6). Once again the old saying is true, “A nation deserves the man they elect.”

Dan 4:17-27, 32, 35

Dan 4:35, 37

Dan 4:17 and Dan 4:35

Dan 4:25, 32, 34, 35, 37

Dan 7:14, 18, 22, 27

Due to all the things said about President Clinton and his reputation, it took an act of our God to have him elected according to Dan 4:17. It would have seemed that there would have been a great “backlash.” But God, who knows the heart of the people now in the USA, corrupted by television, sports, and candy, have lost their moral sense.

I am not saying that /or many of us were any better or that we would have maybe made a better president according to Dan 4:17, but we can no longer sympathize with moral corruption and everything else shady he is accused of — or that could be true — since they all conspired together to remove a cult by the means they deemed necessary, at great repercussions.

I don't fault Mr. Clinton as much as I do "the people" of this "great nation." Where are they? The new The Three Eternal Destinies publication will be addressed to these "people" who elected him to be their President, to preside in their place as representing them to the nations of the world.

George Washington declined to be a King. I wonder if Mr. Clinton would do the same honor as George Washington did for the people and the nation he loved so much as to head up the Revolutionary war — not getting into patriotic emotion — but I don't believe that Dan 4:17 can be applied to George Washington as to the "draft dodger," Mr. Clinton. Somehow this speaks of character — for a man to be worthy of honor above all others, as representative of people with high character. But has the fabric rotted?

1 Pet 2:13-17 is still our heart, even in the days of Nero! (Titus 3:1). Dan 4:17 says that President Clinton is ordained by God, Rom 13:1, both in the Edah and in the nations — "Established by God." This of course applies to the present election of Mr. Clinton. So we are still to be subject to his authority, for there is no authority except from God (Dan 4:17). This applied to Nero (unless the particular situation was as Acts 4:18-20), as both Paul and Peter wrote these letters when Nero was on the throne. We are to pray for Nero and all also who are in authority. 1 Tim 2:1,2,3 — For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God. We are to pray and not protest — so we can lead a quiet life — to pray and not protest is good and acceptable to our Master — who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth — even Mr. Clinton and his wife.

Soon you will receive the 20+ teachings on The Three Eternal Destinies of Man. This teaching should be taught as usual, at a festival-like gathering. It should be taught in training to our children until every one in the whole Edah — the whole twelve tribes — knows it perfectly for the sake of the gospel.

Write a book on the The Three Eternal Destinies of Man whenever you and the prophets and the teachers condense it into a polished arrow for the nations. For it reveals the righteousness of God — the justice, love, and mercy He has for man.
