

The Three Eternal Destinies #162 What Happens after the Judgment?

Heb 9:27 says it is appointed for all men to die once and after that the judgment. So what comes next? Death. But what happens after what came next? The judgment!

What happens after the judgment? You be the judge.

Rev 22:11-12 lays out the Three Eternal Destinies of Man and Rev 20:11-15 is the judgment which determines the first and second category in Rev 22:11. The first category is the unjust and filthy, the second is the righteous. They will be judged in the final judgment seat of mankind. For such sins as mentioned in Rev 21:8 there is a second death, which is eternal. For the second category, the righteous will be rewarded with a second life, which is eternal, for such deeds as Rom 2:6-11. A person will be judged worthy or unworthy of a second death or a second life.

The third category of people on earth is the holy in Rev 22:11. Their eternal destiny is described in Dan 7:27. All shall obey Him in verse 14; but all shall obey them in verse 27.

Dan 7:14 to Him;

Dan 7:27 to them, because of verses 17,21,22;

The Stone Kingdom is Dan 7:26-27; Dan 2:35,44.

The ten kings (rulers) intermarry with the beast. The ten kings are Christian rulers who have ascended to political power and authority to bring in the beastly system.
