

Christianity Wants to Take Over the World

Christianity wants to take over the world – by gaining political control (Rev 17:3). Her purpose is to make the whole earth a Christian earth. They mean to go from one Christian nation after another until they form a Christian earth. Then the beast will buck her off his back and burn her alive with fire (Rev 17:16-18). He will take over to be to this earth its god (2 Ths 2:4). The Pope got in the beast's way; the beast had enough of the Pope telling him what to do (2 Ths 2:4-8). The Pope was the restraint on the beast's back, holding to his reigns, restraining his every movement.

Christianity is Rev 18:2. So, Satan's kingdom is divided (Mt 12:25) – Satan casts out Satan, but this is by what God put into their hearts to do (Rev 17:17). The woman, the twelve-tribed holy nation, flees to the wilderness only after the beast takes absolute control of the political system.
