

The Three Eternal Destinies #178 The Message to the Nations

“The Three Eternal Destinies of Man” must be presented in such a way that is understood (irresistibly sure and certain) even as Dan 2:45. In the same way, the Stone Kingdom must be presented in no uncertain terms also. The presentation and its interpretation must be as equally certain as the dream itself. The proclamation of the Stone Kingdom must be as equally sure as the dream is certain.

Mankind has a Choice

Obadiah 15 — “The Day of Yahweh is near for all the nations. As you have done, it will be done to you. Your dealings will return on your own head.”

Obadiah 15 is the message to the nations. The Three Eternal Destinies give all mankind a choice— to decide what their eternal destiny will be, even as Obadiah 15 says. Unless Obadiah 15 is heard, 2 Ths 1:8-10 and 2:10-12 cannot be true.

Tribulation and distress will come upon all nations as a result of not heeding this message (Lk 21:25-27).

We Also have a Choice

Regardless of how smart a person may be, unless he has a personal relationship with God he cannot endure in the community (Mt 24:13; Rom 8:7-9; Eph 3:12; Heb 4:16; 1 Pet 1:8,22; 1 Cor 16:22). He cannot endure unless he prays (Lk 18:1).
