

Vision to Produce the Male Child

(A brother was asked why he didn't play the piano while we were singing. He said that there was no electricity for the piano.)

Can you imagine King David having to depend upon electricity? When we flee to the wilderness, we'd better be packed and ready to go with our instruments on our backs... if we're in the field we'd have to go back into the house to get them. Can you imagine Chets Barur and Nun carrying a big piano on their backs all the way to the wilderness? I doubt if that would be practical. We may have instruments in the wilderness, but I doubt if we'll have a piano. I don't know if we'll be carrying instruments or not, but I do know that we'll be fleeing to the wilderness.

The sacrifice will be taken from the world, but I'm sure we'll gather in the morning and evening in the wilderness. But we won't have to depend on electricity, therefore we won't have instruments that need it. We won't be using lights and electricity in our households, and we will be using artesian wells the last three and a half years before we flee into the wilderness. We will be using alternative energy. More than likely, in the areas where we are, they will force the mark of the beast on the people as an experiment, in an effort to destroy us. So we won't be able to pay our water bill, or our electricity bill, therefore they will cut our water and electricity off. They probably will use computers to do it. We might have our own communication system. We heard all kinds of excuses this morning, saying that the reason we couldn't get up, or do this, or do that, was because of the moon. There is a full moon, so it was difficult to get up.

Well, who do you think you think you are? Have you ever read Rev 12:1? Are you a part of the Woman? Are you that Woman? Are you going to put the moon under your feet today, or are you going to wait for the last day before we flee to do it? I doubt it.

We will become very pregnant sometime before the last 21 years, when we'll finally give birth to our seed... the most liked people on the face of the earth. They'll be pure, holy, undefiled, and able to be in one accord with us. They'll be submitting to one another in reverence for one another. They'll be very well trained.

They will have learned to really put their enemies under His feet.

The moon affects our emotions. Every day something affects our emotions, especially when the moon is full. Last night we cut the hair of a couple of girls. They say it's supposed to be good somehow. The moon affects everything. Sometimes you don't even know what is going on.

Without vision the people perish... but we won't perish if we have that vision to produce the Male Child. Just like it says in Rev 14:1-5, that they will be the most liked people that have ever lived on the face of the earth. They will be so perfect. In their own humanity, still flesh and blood, they will deal with Satan in power, on earth. They will be overcoming.

The Male Child will be so wonderfully trained that they will become a sacrifice. In Rev 6:9 it says that they were sent out to be a sacrifice. They will be sacrificed for us. They will be so pure and clean that they can be used as a sacrifice... slain like a slain lamb. If we are going to flee into the wilderness, then the Male Child has to take all the attention upon themselves, in order that we can flee. They go out instantly and bring all the attention of all the forces of mankind upon themselves, and will be killed (Rev 6:9-11). Their souls will be absent from the body, but present with our Master. In heaven they will be crying out with a loud voice, just like they learned to have a loud voice during their few years of training. We train our children to speak with a loud voice.

If you are a son of Abraham, you are a trainer of your children, and you're teaching your children to speak loudly... with a loud voice. You can speak as loud as you want to. It's like a trumpet. It says to lift up your voice like a trumpet. Man is made so that he can speak loudly, and be heard at a great distance... for emergencies, and things of that nature. That's why He has given us a voice. That's one of the ways by which we select the Male Child. One of the outstanding qualifications and characteristics of the Male Child will be that they are able to speak loudly. Even in the minchah they speak with a loud voice, and they are heard.

We don't speak so loudly that it is not practical, but we speak loudly enough to be heard... at the weddings, and festivals. Our Master was trained to speak loudly; John the baptizer was trained to speak loudly. All those upon whom the Holy Spirit comes are able to speak loudly. No one can speak in a hushed voice. We won't allow it. Faith comes by hearing. No one can hear if we speak softly.

So we have to rely on our vision and our goal, which is to be that Woman. We'll discover that pain... very massive pain to produce the Male Child. If anyone doesn't have this hope, he won't be purified.

Our Master is going to come... ready or not. There will be some who are ready, and some who are not ready.

Some will be dressed and ready, and some won't. We used to play "hide and seek," and we would say, "Here I come, ready or not!" That's what our Master says... "Here I come, ready or not!" Because we've had ample time to be ready and have our garments clean, and to be dressed in fine linen, white and clean.

Every morning and every evening we know that we come before Him. By faith we know that. It's just as true, as if He were here in person, or as the time when we will stand before Him in judgment, when He comes and brings us back to earth. This how we prepare ourselves, day after day, after day, etc.

We're looking forward to that time, so we won't lose heart. We won't grieve. Or else this becomes a ritual. It only becomes a ritual to fools. But it won't become a ritual to the wise. We have to be the wise, and not fools.

Aaron says to come before our Master every day, twice a day. That's our preparation. We're a city prepared.

She is being pre-pared — pared previously. She is not going to wait until the last day. Some say, "On the last day I'll get up on time... I'll start going to exercises... I'll start training on the last day..."

You can't put those things off. It has great consequential effects. There will be no peace — only regret. We must take advantage of the time we have now.

Emet — You asked the question, "Who are we?" We're the pinnacle of creation. We're the Sons of God. We're the ones the moon is waiting for. It says that all creation is waiting for the revealing of the Sons of God.

Nothing in the whole universe is right yet. Nothing has come to completion. It's just ridiculous that I can't get out of bed in the morning.

We need to know who we are. We need to get our worth out of who we are. Sometimes we get our worth out of other things, and that can really hinder us when the challenge comes.

I could have gotten up and said that all creation is waiting for me, and our Master is still being held in heaven until I start overcoming these things. But I didn't. I was locked under the covers.

Maybe I've been finding my worth in other things, because everything is consistent. If we're focused all day, just knowing who we are, overcoming for our Master, building up our brothers, because we want the Body to be established, so the perfection of beauty can go out, so that our Father can gather His sheep. If we're continuously focused on those things, then we will wake up differently. We'll wake up knowing who we are, and knowing what we want to be consumed with. We will know the enemies we want to overcome.

I really want to find worth in what our Father has chosen me to be, and not in any other thing. It will make me worthless.

If we're able to judge ourselves, then we'll be able to judge the world. If we can judge our children, we can judge the Edah. We need to hear. How many times, when a brother is speaking, do we drift off, and start thinking about something else? What made us do that? Was it our brain? Or is our brain only a servant of our soul? It's like an organ. Therefore you feed it what you want. The soul takes its source from somewhere. Where is it getting its information? We can see that your spirit is in connection with something that draws you off from hearing what your brother is saying.

This is training... discipline... discipleship. Our Master spoke words to His disciples. They were to give Him their attention. They had to hear what He had to say, so that it could enter them, and the Holy Spirit could bring it back, and they could write it down. But what if they won't listen to Him? They're worrying about the money they have in their purse. They wouldn't be worthy. They would be eliminated. They would be betrayers, like it says in Mt 24:9-11. We betray ourselves when we don't pay attention. A homosexual is betrayed by his facial expression. Our countenance betrays the way we are. It betrays what spirit we are listening to. We can put our spirit on whatever spirit we want to.

We are respondable people. This makes us responsible. We're no longer drifters, without a goal. We have a goal. We have to take hold of what He took hold of us for. We must forget the past.

There are three reasons why people will not be held accountable for not receiving the Gospel that is preached to them by one of us. The first is that the one who preached is seeking his own glory. The second is if the one speaking is not in communion with his brothers. The third is if one doesn't speak loudly enough, and the person simply doesn't hear clearly what we're saying.

This shows clearly our great responsibility to be filled with the Spirit at all times.
