

The Restoration in the Last Days

Isaiah prophesied the restoration of the twelve tribes in the last days. They will be a light, a witness of salvation to the ends of the earth. These are the twelve tribes outside the borders of natural Israel (Isa 49:6; Mal 1:11). One of the reasons we know this is because of what's recorded in Jer 30:18-20,24 — I will multiply them. Their children shall also be as formerly. Their edah — community shall be established before Me. Jer 31:1 — At that time I shall be the God of all the tribes of Israel. Verse 4 — Again I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel! Again you shall be adorned with your tambourines and go forth to the dances of the merrymakers. Verse 13 — Then the maiden shall rejoice in the dance and the young men and the old men and the old women alike, because man is both, male and female together. We can actually see this prophecy fulfilled all around the world in every place, where the virgins, the young men and old men and women together, rejoice in the dance.

I am thankful to be part of that restoration to bring our Master back, to bring about the Shabbat reign that will restore old Israel to be a twelve-tribed nation again. But first Heb 10:13 must take place. Somebody has to put all of our Master Yahshua's enemies under His feet. Then He will be able to come back and fulfill the promise to Abraham and give to him the land. It will be an enemy-free land. It will not be like today with all the killing that's going on over there. There is no safety whatsoever. We can bring that about for them.

In the last days the community was like a beehive, preparing for Sharat's and Sh'maryah's wedding. Our whole life in all communities is like preparing for a wedding. Rev 19:7-8 — We have to make ourselves ready, pure, no stains, white clothes. Then He'll eliminate all His enemies on the earth, all evil people who won't turn their hearts to Him. Then comes the Millennium. Abraham will be there. That's what we're living for.

Israel is forming all over the earth, bringing the lost sheep back, believing in Messiah, who was wrongly crucified 2000 years ago. They didn't understand. They will awaken. People from every nation will be saved and come into the commonwealth of Israel.
