

The Sons of God Aren't Cowards

Our Master didn't come the first time like the Jews wanted Him to come, but He'll come back that way. When He comes a second time, when He returns, He is going to come like they expected Him to come the first time, in great glory, with a mighty army. We have to abandon our little dinky army and be prepared for that. We have to abhor our sins, hate them and turn away from them. You won't turn away from something you don't abhor. The whole world will reap the consequences of their sin, but they won't turn away from it, because it feels so good. That's how Satan keeps the whole world in bondage.

Lk 3:4-8 (Amplified Bible) — Have a conduct worthy of a heart changed, a heart abhorring sin.

Verse 8 speaks about the descendants of Abraham. God is able to raise up descendants of Abraham from stones. I'm thankful we are now descendants of Abraham. Those who belong to Messiah are Abraham's descendants (Gal 3:29). I belong to Messiah. I'm His property, His possession. He owns me. He has given me eternal life. He purchased me out of slavery, redeemed me from every lawless deed.

He is looking for sons to rule. We have to quit being cowards. Those who belong to Him, those who will rule with Him, know who they are. They aren't cowards. The sons of God aren't cowards.

All the sons of God come forward. Anyone who wants to be a son of God can be anytime he wills, anytime he is willing to come to our Master Yahshua and drink freely, without paying for it, of that water of life.

Is there anything that can be compared to the value of eternal life? It is better than any momentary pleasure, better than ice-cream, better than being famous. Those who overcome whatever holds them back from coming to our Master will inherit all things, the whole universe.
